

News Release 8/16/2006

Whetstone Valley Business Opportunities, Inc. is a non-profit organization that uses a local approach to rural economic development. Our mission is to find promising entrepreneurs and help them establish a viable business. Thereby, enhancing our local economies. WVBO can help you write a business plan, seek vendors and suppliers, network with others in your field, find answers to challenges, explore potential markets, and locate financial resources. WVBO also assists existing and expanding businesses. We serve Grant, Roberts and Day counties. Our services are free and confidential. If you have a product, skill or service that can be turned into a viable business, please contact our facilitator, Faye Frerichs, at 605-949-1414 or fkfrerx@tnics.com.

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider, and employer.”
